

GOOD PRACTICE EXAMPLES – PARALLEL SESSIONS

From 13.00 – 14.50

Theme 1 Reduction of non-sustainable transport movements

Optimising goods transport in the city through dialogue, Malene Kofod Nielsen, North Jutland County, Denmark

Construction of a centre for agribulk products, Gerlof Hotsma and Marjolein Zwerver Groningen Seaports, The Netherlands.

BussMetro as spatial planning strategy, Ingvald Kårikstad, Kristiansand Municipality, Norway

Theme 2 Promotion of more sustainable transport patterns

What do people expect from a new travelcenter?, Tora Gustafsson, Lidköping Municipality, Sweden.

Good public transport - a key to the complex management of the capital region, Arne Rentik and Peeter Tiks, Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications, Estonia.

Because first impressions last- The Interchange points as the entrance to travel, Line Johansen, Västtrafik AB Infrastructure Department, Sweden.

BussMetro as a Modern Public Transport System, Inge Os, Vest-Agder Public Transport Service, Norway.

Theme 3 Cooperation between different stakeholders to promote sustainable transport

Biogas West - regional cooperation, Göran Värmbly, Business Region Göteborg, Sweden.

Public - private cooperation on the promotion of intermodal transport services, Northern Maritime Corridor project, (speaker TBA).

Accessibility appraisal tool, Margaret McLean, Aberdeen University, Scotland

Construction of a new port for short sea shipping activities, Gerlof Hotsma and Marjolein Zwerver, Groningen Seaports, Netherlands

14.50 – 15.10 Coffee break

From 15.10 – 17.15

Theme 2 Promotion of more sustainable transport patterns

K2020 - a plan for the future of public transport, Jörn Engström, City of Göteborg, Traffic and Public Transport authority, Sweden.

Demand Responsive Transport, Eric Guthrie, Aberdeenshire Council, Transportation and Infrastructure, Scotland.

Your own bus from door to door, Peter Hermansen, Planning Dept. VAFT - Public Transport Company in Viborg County, Denmark

Break in the minds - changing the image of cycling, Gunter De Baerdemaeker, Mobiel VZW, Belgium.

Promoting cycling in the city, Elisabeth A. Helle, Kristiansand Municipality, Norway.

Theme 3 Cooperation between different stakeholders to promote sustainable transport

Integrated Transport Management between different levels of government, Kåre Riseng, Kristiansand Municipality, Norway.

Partnership, partnership, partnership! - Methods for public participation in planning processes, Andrew Harding, Southend Borough Council - UK local authority, UK.

Regional plan for long term urban development on Jæren, Gunnar Eiterjord, Rogaland County Council, Norway.

North East Scotland Rail Freight Development Group, Diane Campion, Aberdeenshire Council, Transportation and Infrastructure, Scotland.

From 08.30 – 10.40

Theme 2 Promotion of more sustainable transport patterns

Promoting Short Sea Shipping and Inland Waterways in the North Sea Region, Carsten Westerholt, BIBA-İKAP, Bremen, Germany.

From road to sea and railway - Practical examples of Modal Shift, Aarhus Transport Group, Denmark.

Environmental control of emission from road haulage transport, Johnny Amtoft, Haulage Contractor, Denmark.

Joint actions for regional growth and sustainable development in the South Baltic Sea area, John Hultèn, Baltic Gateway, Sweden.

Theme 4 Improving the environmental efficiency of different transport means

H2 HUB – CO2 free hydrogen transportation HUB, Mikale Sloth, H2 Logic, Denmark.

Hydrogen and Fuel Cells - an investigation on industrial possibilities and prospects for the transportation sector, Benny Christensen, Ringkøbing County, Denmark.

HyNor – The Hydrogen Road of Norway, Einar Håndlykken, ZERO - Zero Emission Resource Organisation, Norway.

Hydrogen Link - a Green Nordic Hydrogen Transportation corridor, Benny Christensen, Ringkøbing County, Denmark.

10.40 – 11.00 Coffee break

Theme 2 Promotion of more sustainable transport patterns

North East Cargo Link - Developing a sustainable strategy for intermodal goods transport, Jon Gjemble, Norske Skog, Norway.

Success criteria for intermodal rail system, Dag Skuland, CargoNet AS, Norway.

Initiatives and action plans for the development of new competitive Short Sea Shipping/intermodal routes, Northern Maritime Corridor project (speaker TBA).

Port participation in integrated supply chains may increase intermodal volumes by sea, Professor Dag Bjørnland, Agder Research

Theme 4 Improving the environmental efficiency of different transport means

Sustainable car pool - a full service concept, Frida Karlge, City of Göteborg, Traffic and Public Transport Authority, Sweden.

Measures to obtain a more sustainable and environmentally friendly bus transport system in the city, Jörn Engström, City of Göteborg, Traffic and Public Transport authority, Sweden

Biomass, reduction of volume by compressing the material and increase of energy per ton biomass, Gerlof Hotsma and Marjolein Zwerver, Groningen Seaports, The Netherlands.

Sustainable transport - competitive parameter in goods transport, Marianne Frank, International Transport Danmark ITD, Denmark.

31 May

01 June